

Javier Rochwarger

Monday, February 13

7-830pm, Dynamics of Tango
Movement (All levels)
830-1130pm, Practica

Tuesday, February 14

630-8pm, Paradass and Pasadas (Int)
8-930pm, Technique for Enrosques
and Complex Turning Figures (Int)

Wednesday, February 15

7-830pm, Improvising Colgadas
and Volcadas (Adv)
830-1130pm, Practica

hosted by ProvidenceTango

February 13-15,
2006

$20 per workshop
$5 per Practica
private lessons available

Javier Rochwarger, of Argentina, is a warmly intense and generous talent, belonging to Buenos Aires' newer generation of tango dancers. Grounded, sensual, and musical expression emanates from Javier's dancing and is reflected in the faces of his partners on the dance floor. In the past two years he has traveled to Spain to teach classes, founding a milonga and starting tango activity in Sevilla. Also during this time he has taught in Buenos Aires with the Grupo Graciela Gonzalez, for the Festival de Tango de la Ciudad Buenos Aires in the San Martín Theater, and at the University of Quilmes.

An original influence and teacher was Tete. Then his drive to understand the mechanisms and technique of the dance led him to Graciela Gonzalez, with whom he has studied extensively. Javier has a unique and compassionate perspective. He literally understands what it is to be a beginner and to go through the phases of learning, and students praise him for his patience and kindness.

PROVIDENCE
TANGO
∞

ProvidenceTango is located at 99 South Bend Street. Pawtucket, RI 02860
For more information, please visit www.providencetango.com. Call 401.728.9393.
Or email info@providencetango.com